Mid-week Prayer Service, 7:45.
A very much missionary minded member of the local Adventist Church, Mr. F. D. Flynn, of Route 3, Appomattox, recently received a letter of appreciation from M. G. Townsend, Secretary - Home Missionary - Sabbath School Departments in South India, Union of Seventh-day Adventists, 9 Cunningham Road, Box 20, Bangalore, India. He began: We receive a month or so befor, each new quarter bundles and bungles of literature from overseas. We do want you to know that we here in India, the people really do appreciate the effort you put zorth in collecting and sending this literature to us. Our English - speaking Sabbath Schools depend entirely upon you for their supplies.

Mr. Flynn has been faithfully collecting used literature for this purpose for some 2 or 3 years.
